

PRINDLE OFFERS SUPPORT TO DEPARTMENTS, PROGRAMS AND CO-CURRICULAR STAFF FOR ETHICS-RELATED PROGRAMMING:

The Janet Prindle Institute for Ethics has $5,000 per semester to help support ethics-related programming, sponsored by departments, programs and co-curricular staff. If you are seeking financial support for an event of this kind, please submit a letter describing the event to Martha Rainbolt, Coordinator of Programming, or Linda Clute, Assistant Director of the JPIE. In this letter include the following information:

- Focus of event
- Approximate dates
- Speaker
- Connection to classes and to students
- Tentative budget
- A statement of the ways in which the event is ethics related
- Inclusion of DePauw alumni and/or the Greencastle community is encouraged, but not required.

Please feel free to talk with Bob Bottoms, Martha Rainbolt, or Linda Clute about any questions you have. The faculty advisory committee at the Prindle Institute will discuss all proposals and make a recommendation to the Director. You may ask for support for ethics-related programming at any time; we are happy to co-sponsor such events, if we have the funds.
